CONCOURS OF ART CLASS

Best Work of Students to Be On Exhibition—Studio Recital.

Who has robbed the ocean cave,
To tinge thy lips with coral hue?
Who from India's distant wave,
To thee, those pearls treasured drew?
Who, from yonder orient sky,
Stole the morning of thine eye?

Thousand charms, thy form to deck,
From sea, and earth, and air are torn;
Roses bloom upon thy cheek,
On thy breath their fragrance borne.
Guard thy bosom from the day,
Lest thy snows should melt away.

But one charm remains behind,
Which mute earth can ne'er impart;
Nor in ocean, wilt thou find,
Nor in the circling air—a heart.
Fairest, wouldst thou perfect be,
Take, O take that heart from me!

—John Shaw.

IN THE CLUBS

At Woman's Club.

Mrs. Tennis Hamilton, of Washington, D. C., will address the member of the Woman's Club, of Richmond, on Monday afternoon in the assembly hall of the Atlantic Hotel, on the subject of "The Woman's Question," a subject in which she is especially interested and to which she has given much study.

Norfolk Woman's Club.

The women of Norfolk met Thursday afternoon in the assembly hall of the Atlantic Hotel, on the subject of "The Woman's Question," a subject in which she is especially interested and to which she has given much study.

Governor-Elect Claude A. Swanson, and His Charming Wife

HON. C. A. SWANSON

MRS. SWANSON

The fact that Virginia's new Governor and his wife are both young and fond of the social side of life, and that Mrs. Swanson is known to be a most agreeable and entertaining hostess, invests the prospect of their administration in the Executive Mansion with much prospective pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Swanson have a country home in Pittsylvania county, not far from Chatham, Va., but they have spent the winter season of the last six or eight years in Washington, D. C., where both are very popular, during Mr. Swanson's congressional career.

Mrs. Swanson is the daughter of the late Dr. Peter Lyons and Mrs. Addie Deane Lyons. She is the granddaughter of Judge James Lyons and Dr. Francis Deane, two well known and prominent professional men of Richmond. She inherits the beauty which made her mother a noted Richmond belle.

It shows a picture of each gift and tells just how many coupons are required to get them. Don't fail to save the coupons. Take a delight in your baking and secure some of the charming premiums.

GOOD LUCK Baking Powder

was established in 1892. The sales have so increased to date, that to-day we are shipping Good Luck Baking Powder in carload lots to every section of the country. The cause of this enormous popularity is plain. In Good Luck, housekeepers get not only a positively pure baking powder of great leavening force, but at a price a little less than they have been accustomed to pay for some other kind that was not as satisfactory in results. When buying Good Luck think of its purity and consider the good results obtained from its use. Remember every Good Luck coupon counts for a present. If your grocer doesn't keep Good Luck, send us his name and we will see that you are supplied.

New Pair FREE if they rust.

of its kind in this city, bids fair to become one of the most prominent and influential organizations of Norfolk within a short time. Interest and enthusiasm prevailed at yesterday's meeting, and though there was some discussion as to the character of the club, whether it should be strictly literary or social, or combine both features, it is regarded as probable that the differences of opinion on this subject will all be healed by the time for the next meeting, which is to take place next Thursday afternoon. It is likely that the club will embrace both the social and literary features.

Miss Virginia Gatewood presided at yesterday's meeting, with Mrs. Nimmo Old as secretary, pro tempore. Mrs. Lillian Biggar, of Atlanta, Ga., who has had wide experience in women's club work all over the South, was present by invitation, and delivered a short address upon the aims and objects of organizations of this character. Mrs. Biggar's remarks were filled with enthusiasm, and stirred interest among those present to a high pitch. Miss Gatewood, in outlining the policy of the club, said that its aim would be to follow in the steps of the twentieth century woman, instead of those of the "new" woman. Miss Gatewood defined the difference between these types in a most interesting and entertaining manner. Miss Gatewood said that the woman of Norfolk, when they put their minds and hearts in a work are apt to accomplish as great things as the women of other sections of the country. "Culture, refinement and education will be the open secrets of the club," said Miss Gatewood, "and with these, the club will undoubtedly rise superior to other organizations of the kind, and become the highest exponent of perfection."

Suffolk Club Life.

Club life has been delightful in Suffolk, Va., during the past week. The Literary Club was given a reception by Miss Elise Urquhart in her home, on Cedar Street. The young hostess was assisted by Miss Mary Delk. In a book title contest, prizes were awarded Miss Anna M. Rutledge and Miss Tom Leary.

Mrs. Robert J. Norfleet gave a progressive euchre to the Ladies' Mathews Card Club, of Suffolk—Mrs. R. E. Norfleet and Mrs. R. L. Woodward. The young ladies members of the Suffolk Literary Club were given an enjoyable oyster roast at Riverview Club Thursday afternoon by several young men. The hosts of the occasion were Messrs. P. H. Hayes, Robert Almond, Milby Lyle, Claude Howell, Clyde Boyce and Lynn Dennis, while their guests were Misses Jessie and Mildred Nurney, Lela Smith, Claudia Butler, Ino Rodgers, Irene Parker, Christine Dennis and Mrs. Clyde Dennis.

Whistlers.

The Stay-at-Home Whist Club will meet Monday evening with Mrs. C. W. P. Brock.

The Kate Wheelock Whist Club will be entertained this week by Mrs. Edmund Waddill, of No. 924 Park Avenue.

ENTERTAINMENTS

Debutante Tea.

Two among the most charming and attractive of Richmond debutantes, Miss Minerva Haskins and Miss Charlotte Miller, were given a debutante tea Friday afternoon by Mrs. T. Ashby Miller in her home, at Home Place. The color decorative scheme of purple and gold was handsomely developed in yellow chrysanthemums and violets.

Young ladies assisting were Miss Alice Deane, Miss Carrie Armistead, Miss Cora Younger, Miss Alma Cecil and Miss Eugenia Taylor.

Progressive Euchre.

Mrs. Miller was the hostess of a progressive euchre given Friday night to Miss Haskins and Miss Miller, at which the pretty debutantes of the season gathered. Every detail of the evening rendered the entertainment one of the smartest of the autumn season.

Those present were Misses Carrie Armistead, Eugenia Taylor, Courtney Crump, Alice Doyle, Avis Grant, Anna Purcell, Laura Rutherford, Cora Younger, Hattie Shields, Carrie Neal, Louise Herbert, Rosalie Jones, Julia Osterloh, Rosa Milnes, Lillian Binford, Brent Wiles, Marion, Martin Robinson, Nellie Gordon, Marie Potts, Sue Gray, Rose Morris, Nan Morris, Gertrude Clark, Bernard Cocke, Bessie Upshur, Kitty Lancaster, Kitty Hoge, Gertrude Lewis, Sadie Jeffress, and Mrs. Elmore Hotchkiss; Messrs. Barksdale Larrum, Pleasant Conquest, John Parrish, James Drake, Cloyd Kent, Tom Correll, John Cecil, Russell Cecil, John Elliott, Charles Larus, Henry Elliott, Langstaff Johnston, Tom Elliott, Dewey Cooke, Charles Stokes, Roy Jones, Beverly Fleet, Tom Brockenbrough, Phil Urquhart, Robert Daniel, Percy Pemberton, Conner Hutcheson, Mr. Estill, William Augustine, William Archer, Charles Wingo, Richard Boyd, Charles McCoy, Percy Montague, Irving Blair, James Dunlop, Albert Tanner, George Morgan, William Tanner, Laddie Gordon, Charles Boyer, William McMane, Wilbur Crump, Paul Shaver, John Cutchins and Elmore Hotchkiss.

Thanksgiving Ball Game.

The Virginia-Carolina foot-ball game at Norfolk will be made the occasion of various social functions in honor of the members of the teams and their friends. After the game there will be a theatre party at the Granby. The theatre will be decorated in the colors of the teams and college yells and songs will lend color to the performance. The souvenir programme, which is being prepared by Messrs. Younger and Boyer, will be a thing of beauty. It will be printed in the colors of both universities, so that the friends of each may obtain a programme just to their liking.

Following the play there will be a germ, at which the teams will be present. Arrangements are being made to entertain an enormous crowd of "rooters" and excursionists.

Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. John Waller Holladay, of Prospect Hill, Fredericksburg, celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary on Monday night. The evening was pleasantly passed in the recitation of original verses and the singing of old songs and ballads. An elegant supper was served at 10 o'clock, and then the bride's cake was cut. The ladies who assisted in receiving were Miss Anne I. Keimlingham, Miss Louise Virginia Harris, Miss Susie E. Holladay, Miss Addie Cowherd, of Gordonsville; Miss Sallie Morgan Kimbrough, of Greenwood, Miss, and Miss Sara Traversa Scott, of San Antonio, Tex.

Fancy Sale.

The ladies of the Home for Incurables board have arranged for a fancy sale for the benefit of that institution, to be held during the week of December 4th, at the Globe building, corner of Seventh and Broad Streets. Any contributions of fancy articles or confections will be received by Mrs. L. O. Miller, No. 205 East Grace Street; Mrs. W. L. Pope, No. 92 1/2 West Grace Street; Miss Sarah Allen, No. 415 West Grace Street; Mrs. Peyton Carrington, No. 715 West Grace Street; Mrs. T. B. Elliott, No. 235 West Grace Street; Mrs. C. B. Price, Chestnut Hill; Mrs. H. W. Rountree, No. 307 Park Avenue; Mrs. James B. Leary, No. 118 Grove Avenue; Mrs. J. G. Cauley, No. 615 West Grace Street; Mrs. John Murphy, at the Chesterfield.

ART AND MUSIC

November Concours.

Cards are out announcing the November concours of the art class of the Woman's College for Friday evening, November 17th, in the college chapel. The best work done by students during the month of November will be on exhibition. A very charming feature of the evening will be a lecture on Japan by Admiral Harrie Webster, illustrated with stereoscopic views from photographs taken by the admiral while in Japan.

Studio Recital.

The pupils of the Richmond Conservatory of Music gave a studio recital Friday evening, November 10th. They acquitted themselves most creditably. A large and appreciative audience was in attendance and gave hearty approval to the programme.

Mrs. J. C. Blainings, who is now one of the vocal teachers, rendered her selections most beautifully. Her voice is of a sweet quality, very elastic, and her personality is most charming.

Miss Rena De Franco Boice, who has the education department, added a dialect sketch to the programme, which was most admirably given, and well received.

The Conservatory Mandolin Club, which is a new feature in the school, had made splendid progress and played well. The next recital will be given by the faculty alone, the announcement appearing later.

Mr. Louis P. Oranger, of St. Louis, has charge of the department of painting and drawing. He has studied in the St. Louis School of Fine Art, and also at the Art Institute, of Chicago, Ill.

SOCIETY WEDDINGS

Sutton—Sinton.

One of the most interesting of autumn weddings in Richmond, that of Miss N. Sinton to Mr. Howard Sutton, will be celebrated at 6:30 P. M. on November 22d, in Calvary Baptist Church, by the Rev. Dr. J. R. Garlick, and the Rev. Ryland Knight.

Ames, of Read's Wharf, Northampton county, Va., formerly of Baltimore, was married to Mr. Stanley Edward Tudor, 718 North Carrollton Avenue, Thursday at the home of the bride's parents. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Charles Friend, of the Presbyterian Church of Belle Haven, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Tudor left immediately after the ceremony for a trip North. They will reside at 706 North Stricker Street.

Syme—Shelton.

One of the most interesting weddings of the season will be that of Miss Rosa-Anna French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Syme, of New Orleans, La. The ceremony will be performed on Wednesday, November 15th, at 11 o'clock, in the home of the bride's parents, at 211 South Third Street.

Roberson—Williams.

Another wedding of the week will be that of Miss Hattie Eloise Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. C. Williams, to Mr. E. Ernest Roberson, of Charlottesville, Va. The ceremony will take place Wednesday evening, November 15th, at 8 o'clock, in the home of the bride's parents, at 2015 East Marshall Street.

Goodykoontz—Rhea.

Many people are interested in the marriage of Miss Rhea to Mr. Goodykoontz. The following account is taken from the Newport News Times-Herald: The wedding to Miss Silene Rhea to Mr. C. H. Goodykoontz, which will take place on November 14th at Bristol, Va., in the Central Presbyterian Church, will be one of the social events of the year in that section. Both the young couple are exceedingly popular in society.

Miss Mary McKimney, of Lynchburg; Mary Mathews, of Max Meadows; Willie Cox, of Johnson City, Tenn.; Charlotte Winston, of Bristol; Bessie Strass, of Roanoke; and Evelyn Dornin, of Lynchburg. The six brides will wear white and carry chrysanthemums. Mrs. Blake will be becomingly gowned in blue crepe de chine and will carry bride roses. The bride will be crowned in white chiffon over tulle, elaborately trimmed with pearls, and veil will be caught with orange blossoms. She will carry a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and will be given away at the altar by her brother, Mr. R. H. Rhea, of Bristol.

Messrs. H. M. Hoskins, of Knoxville, Tenn.; William Kemble, Henry Lavender and Henry Roberts, of Bristol. William Goodykoontz, brother of the groom-to-be, will act as best man, and Messrs. Ross and Prosser, of the wedding, a handsome luncheon will be given before the couple leave for an extended Southern tour.

Pratt—Syme.

The wedding of Miss Mary Maxwell Syme, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad H. Syme, of Washington, will take place on November 21st, to the Rev. Henry Vaddell Pratt. The ceremony will take place in the Second Presbyterian Church, Washington, D. C., of which the groom is pastor, and the ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Frank J. Brooke, of Alexandria, Va., assisted by the Rev. Dr. S. L. Laws, of Washington. Miss Jane Greys, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor, and Dr. W. H. Hollingsworth will be best man.
